Mr. John Eugene Gay,
Director,
National Association of Forest Industries Ltd.,
7 Clarence Street,
EAST LAUNCESTON TAS 7250

Dear Sir,

RE: DEFAMATION OF MYSELF BY THE WEBSITE OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF FOREST INDUSTRIES LIMITED (NAFI)

It has come to my notice that the association of which you are a director, has published and currently continues to publish defamatory comments about my website Discover Tasmania and therefore myself at the website at www.nafi.com.au which also has and is distributing the NAFI eNews No 12.pdf, newsletter dated 5 December 2002 containing the defamatory comments.

The defamatory comments which include a description of my website as being bogus, relate to the re-publication of a Hobart Mercury article by journalists Ellen Whinnett and Sue Bailey.

The publication of the word bogus is false and intrinsically injurious.

The General manager of NAFI has been notified of this matter by my email and fax of 2 July 2003, however the offending publications have not been removed at this point in time despite my request that they should be.

TAKE NOTICE

If the publications are not immediately removed, it will be taken by myself that you are authorising this continued publication.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE

Your association will be hearing from me in due course as to my damages in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Gordon Craven
